#43: PATTON'S THIRD ARMY

Patton's Third Army is a solitaire game system where the player takes command of Gen. George S. Patton's Third Army during the campaign across France in 1944. The game begins immediately following the Falaise Battle and continues to 15 December, when Third Army was sent to fight in the Battle of the Bulge. Your goal as a player is to surpass Patton's original record, possibly forestalling Germany's Ardennes Offensive and gaining glory as a great general.

In the game, you control US and other Allied units assigned to the Third Army. The game system plays the Germans. You will have to deal with a wide variety of situations, from battling against fierce panzer counterattacks, to figuring out ways to extend your lines of supply. Your objective: Germany! The game has two levels: the Standard Rules, providing for a quick game and the Optional Rules, which gives more realism for more complexity.
